Commission Website Review

In 2011, the Commission will begin a project to update our Internet site. During January, a Business Analyst will be working with Commission members, staff, service providers and users to identify desirable facilities and features of a new website. You are invited to submit any suggestions and ideas concerning the new website. An email address has been created so you can forward your contributions by 4 February 2011 to: website@wcc.nsw.gov.au
